RFU Tickets conditions

All Tickets ordered and supplied are subject to the RFU ticket terms and conditions, a copy of which is available on request. Only paid up members may apply for tickets.

- In particular no member may sell or dispose of their tickets to anyone if they are not required for the member's personal use. They should be returned to Robert McGuire – Ticket Secretary.
- If you are allocated two (or more) tickets the club may want to know who will be accompanying you or accompanied you to the game and request back the tickets after the match.
- If any of the club tickets are discovered on the black market including e-Bay the RFU may sanction the Club which may lead to loss of allocation.
- You will be charged for tickets returned to the Ticket Secretary. If we are not able to return them to the RFU or pass them onto another club member.
- If you have any query as to what you are entitled to do with ticket(s) issued to you please contact, Robert McGuire – Ticket Secretary

Plus the following update from the RFU.

Warning

During the last couple of years, the use of social media network sites, like Facebook and Twitter, have seen a large number of people placing photographs of their match tickets for high profile events as a way of making people aware that they are going to the match. Unfortunately, this has resulted in a number of tickets being subsequently copied and advertised illegally for sale by 3rd parties on unofficial online sites like StubHub and Gumtree. Therefore, and to avoid any situation arising from possible misappropriation of tickets, we would advise that you instruct your members to refrain from placing tickets allocated to them for matches at Twickenham and also for England's away RBS 6 Nations matches on such sites.

This will help to ensure that your club does not unknowingly contravene the Ticket Application Conditions, which could in turn result in a ticket sanction being placed on your club and a possible reduction of match tickets
